SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. [REDACTED] it was reported that Soviet headquarters in Bezirk Oberwart, Burgenland, ordered all male Austrian civilians of military age residing in the Bezirk to report to headquarters for registration. The registrants were asked how long, where, and in which branch of the service they had served in the German Armed Forces. They were asked to indicate their highest military rank. The Soviet medical officer also asked for information concerning any physical defects.
2. The measure caused considerable alarm in southern Burgenland. The registrants assume that in the case of war, they will be inducted into the Soviet Army.
